

Noah McNatt

Stop the Records! Sabrina Carpenter and Jonas Brothers Touring Pittsburgh Soon

The Tours are Coming!

2025 is shaping up to be an exciting year for music fans living in the Pittsburgh region. Two of the biggest names in the music industry will be making their stop at PPG Paints Arena very soon. The first is the two-time Grammy-award winning and three-time MTV-award winning artist, Sabrina Carpenter. The second is the Grammy-nominated band, the Jonas Brothers. Keep reading for more information on the tours!

Short Sweetness

Sabrina Carpenter, as previously mentioned, is a mega successful pop star and one of the leading names in the industry. Her recently released album, Man's Best Friend, has been topping music charts around the world. Following this success, the singer is taking her Short n' Sweet tour into Pittsburgh for two days only. Those dates are October 23 and 24 of this year. After the announcement, one enthusiastic fan commented, "OMG, I can't believe she's coming to Pittsburgh! I can't wait!" Tickets for both days are currently available for purchase, but get them while you can.

The Hometown's Calling

The Jonas Brothers are also riding a wave of success, after the critical acclaim of their new album, Greetings From Your Hometown. The tour, JONAS20: Living The Dream, is a celebration of their music spanning over 20 years. The tour will only be in Pittsburgh for one day, which is November 12 of this year. Excitement for the group's arrival has been high as well, with one person commenting, "WOW, Jonas Brothers in Pittsburgh? Tickets purchased, I'm ready!" Tickets for the 12th are also currently available for purchase, but just like Sabrina's, get them while you can.